

Satellite should be allowed to keep traffic and weather. If the market supports the product, and wants this service then the service should stay.